

We have a problem due next week. It is to model a sphere. We should describe 3 methods. The three methods are spherical coordinate interpolation, tetrahedron subdivision, and manifold curve parameterization. We are to submit code for spherical coordinate interpolation only, but to submit diagrams for all of them.